

Application Service Provider Privacy & Security Policies

Access	Users are authorized for appropriate levels of system access and capabilities by the practice within the systems user access/authorization functions. Authentication of authorized users is maintained through the use of encrypted and secure passwords and user ID's. Use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the security of the Protected Health Information and to prevent the unauthorized use and/or disclosure of such Protected Health Information, which shall in no event be less than the efforts SuiteMed and its VAR apply in protecting their own confidential business information.
Authorization	Users are authorized for appropriate levels of system access and capabilities within the systems user access/authorization functions. Authentication of authorized users is maintained through the use of encrypted and secure passwords and user ID's.
Authentication	Authentication of authorized users is maintained through the use of encrypted and secure passwords and user ID's.
Audit	The system maintains a real time record of all access to the system including the user, the area of the record accessed, what was done and the date and time of the action. Report to designated Privacy Officer of the customer, in writing, any use and/or disclosure of the protected Health Information that is not permitted or required by this Agreement of which SuiteMed and VAR becomes aware.
Secondary Uses of Data	There are no secondary uses of the data owned by the customer without express permission of the client. SuiteMed may use the Protected Health Information in its possession to fulfill any present or future legal responsibilities of SuiteMed.
Data Ownership	Customer shall own all its data, content and information that may be input by Customer into the System. Customer Confidential Information shall include patient information (including without limitation protected health information and individually identifiable health information as defined under HIPAA) and proprietary and non-public information and data that concerns Customer business.